The class of '48 presents, through
"Senior Memoirs,"
our story,
"AS WE TRAVELED ALONG TOGETHER"

Published and edited by the Senior Class of the Port Jervis High School, Port Jervis, New York

In publishing this 1948 Edition of our primary purpose is to preserve the memories of the good times of our Junior and Senior years—class jokes, minstrel, the promenade in May, parties, Sadie Hawkins dances, football games, especially the last quarter of the '47 Port-Middie game, Saturday nights at Swing Inn, basketball and baseball games, lunch on the campus, the first day of spring, pep rallies, Senior day and other activities.

Senior Memoirs

In compiling this book, we have endeavored to produce a piece of work that may serve as a constant reminder of the pleasant associations and of the lessons learned during our never-to-be-forgotten high school days.

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations upon your graduation from high school. I feel that the confidence placed in you and the sacrifices made by your parents, the school, the faculty, and the community have been justified and amply rewarded. It is my hope that as citizens of this great country you will accept your full measure of responsibility and direct your best efforts toward the establishment of a lasting peace and the brotherhood of man.

It is with regret that we see you leave this high school but in our hearts there is great hope that each of you will live and achieve in such a way that you will inspire us to greater effort and service in our work.

May I extend to each of you the congratulations and best wishes of the school and the faculty.

Sincerely,

R. E. AYER, Principal.

Herman is a quiet, but friendly member of our class. Coming
"all the way from Huguenot" he is not able to partake in many activities but is in sports and has been most cooperative in the activities of his class.

BOLAND, THOMAS "Tom"

"All great men are dying, I don't feel so well myself."

Our future clothing expert,
Tom may be seen directing traffic toward Boland's Store.
Though Tom does not belong to many clubs he has taken an active part in class activities and has been most cooperative. The class of '48 wishes you luck always, Tom.

Bill has clearly expressed his intention,
To get to work upon some invention,
So here's to success in his undertaking!
We all hope it may soon be "in the making"
For he wants ONLY to be a millionaire,
And promises '48 a goodly share.

PAULISON, JOHN "Jack"

"The Dodger expert"

Here's a boy, Jack by name
A senior '48 is proud to claim
Baseball is his favorite sport
Ask his team, get this retort,
'The Dodgers' is the ONLY team,
A word against them, and I'll Blow off steam!"

PETITTI, JULIO "Butch"

"What! More dishes!"

Keep on the right side of this smiling lad,
He can do you, good or bad,
For breakfast, supper, noon, or brunch
Julio will serve you at Larry's Lunch
Hats off to the chef of '48
Good luck and fortune to this classmate.

In the bus he comes to school,
Promptly by the 8:30 rule.
Joins in all the homeroom fun,
But gets his daily homework done.
For Clem would really be your friend,
'Tis he who'll "plant" you in the end.

RYBAK, ANNE "Annie"

"No-o-o"

Treasurer Homeroom 4

This is our "Annie of '48"
Always on time, never late,
Into homeroom does she come
Bringing with her lots of fun!
May she find life sunny and gay
With laughter all along life's way.

SCALES, FRANCIS "Frank"

"A smile a day"

Forever ready on his lips,
A big "Hello" and big "Hip-Hip"
That's Danny passing through the halls
Answering "Hi" to all his calls,
To this Senior, happy and gay,
We wish you luck along life's way.

SMITH, FRANK "Bucky"

"I came right back,"

Here's to Bucky, always gay,
Quoting "Prices" every day.
If he "Burns" up, it's hard to tell
For 319 thinks he's pretty swell.
So to this smiling Senior, we say "Adieu"
And good luck and good fortune to "You."

SPACE, CLIFFORD "Cliff"

"In all labor there is profit"

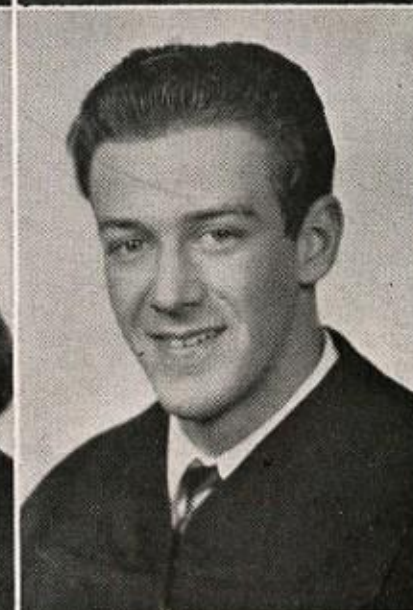

Cliff has expressed his desire to become a farmer because he loves animals. We, his classmates, hope that he attains every goal he sets for himself.

STEMPERT, MARY JANE

"Listen to the wedding bells"

Homemaking Club 3, 4

This is a Senior who's really a sport,
A clever girl of a very good sort.
Willing, eager, ready and waiting,
For June 29, she'll be graduating
Then together Gene and our Mary Jane,
Will go to gather their due and fame.

STONE, CLIFFORD "Cliff"

"Good books are true friends"

Cliff as he is known to us,
Does his work without much fuss
Doesn't bicker, doesn't worry,
Doesn't fret, doesn't hurry.
Glad are we of '48
That Cliff has been our classmate.

SWINGLE, CHESTER

In Memoriam

Silence, and then low murmurs can be heard. All eyes are cast on an empty seat. A seat that might now be occupied. But "Fran" is no longer here.

The bell rings and we go into the hall. On our way we forget for a moment, and look for that cheerful "hello" and that happy smile. Then we remember, and we realize the ways of life and the heartaches of death.

"Frances Heater" is a girl never to be forgotten by us—one who represents all the good and wonderful things of life, one who will always remain a pattern for us to follow.

Yes, "Fran" is gone for a while. But perhaps in the future, by the grace of God we will once again hear that "Hello" and see that smile for ever. Until that moment we say goodbye "Fran"—we are thinking of you.

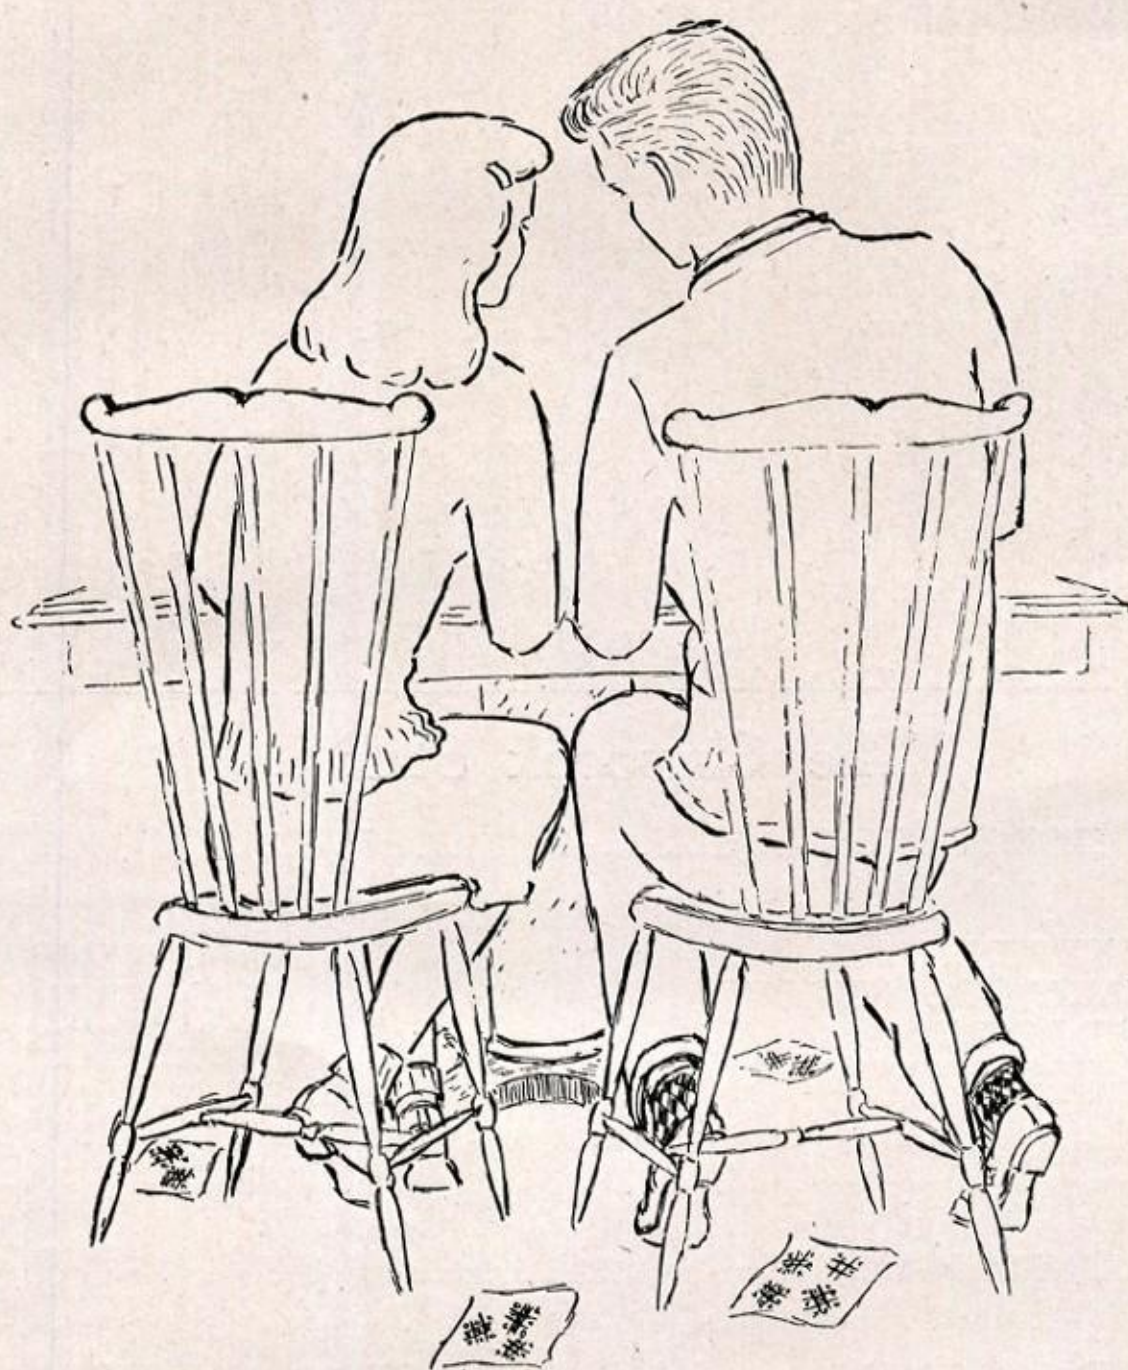

Sitting on couch—Miss Dorothy Evans, Miss Margaret Sinclair, Mrs. Louise Blood.
Sitting on table—Mr. Fred Pilkington, Mr. Louis Horsman.
Sitting on chair—Miss Betty Jane Loomis, Mr. George Wilson.

Our Sponsors

Truly, words cannot express the deep gratitude and sincere appreciation we feel for the unselfish efforts of our sponsors; for their leadership, guidance, and encouragement throughout the year. Always willing to lend a helping hand, offer a word of advice or a spark of encouragement, they have brought us successfully through our final year together, and leave us now on the threshold of life, more certain of future success, better prepared to face the uncertainties of the future, and better citizens of the world, because of their influence on us.

We, the Class of '48, extend our most sincere thanks.

Student Council

Pictured above are the members of the Student Council, representing the various homerooms of the school.

The Council is the student governing body. At the weekly meetings problems of the students are discussed in an effort to find a solution.

A few of the numerous accomplishments the Council has made for the year 1947-48 are erection of a mailbox at the front of the school, the installation of a telephone for students' use, a canopy for the gymnasium, and the purchase of a school flag.

President	John Conroy
Vice President	Alvah Smith
Secretary	Patricia Schoonmaker
Treasurer	Russell Salmon
Social Chairman	Janet Gates
Parliamentarian	Lucille Levin
Sponsors ..	Mrs. Louise Blood and Miss Betty Jane Loomis

Seniors in the club are: Joe Fitzgibbons, Bob Dorer, Vince Lore, John MacAlarney, Evelyn Zitone, Dave Van Sickle, and Jack Conroy.

Honor Council

In its second year of existence, the Honor Council has succeeded in becoming one of the outstanding clubs in the school. Although it was impossible to have many meetings, they have held a new type of dance, Cafe style, encouraged politeness, and helped raise the morale of the student body.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected:

President	Dave Van Sickle
Vice President	Joseph Fitzgibbons
Secretary	Shirley Colby
Treasurer	Robert Dorer
Social Chairman	Jean Pound

The new members were given their pins on Awards Day, and we're sure they will do many things next year to make the Honor Council even more active.

Journalism Club

One of the most active and largest groups in the high school is the Journalism Club. This is the second year of the Port Jervian's existence. This year it won second place at the Columbia University Scholastic Press Conference at which schools from 48 states competed.

Although this club has had many problems to be solved, they have always been able to pull themselves up to the top. This may be attributed to the democratic cooperation of all members.

The complete membership includes 50 active workers in different departments. Editorial Staff officers:

Editor-in-Chief	Harvey B. Cohen
Assignment Editor	James Brett
Circulation Manager	Norma Mosher
Business Manager	Jocelyn Pratschler
Advertising Manager	Florence Seidler
Sports Editors	Bill Burgess and Ruth Lawrence
Fashion Editor	Shirley Colby
Humor Editor	Art Siegel
Exchange Editor	Joan Lehn
Social Editor	Jane Caulkins
Make-up Staff	Betty Van Schaick
Chief Reporter	Cynthia Sakofsky
Photographer	Harvey B. Cohen
Secretary	Mary Parker

The Seniors in this club are Norma Mosher, Harvey B. Cohen, Elaine Shampansky and Mary Jashembowski.

Latin Club

Laeti Latini is the name of this school club. At the monthly meetings the "Happy Latins" not only accomplished much but had a lot of fun. The Christmas party and stunt night were most successful.

The officers for 1947-48 are:

Consuls (corresponding to President and Vice President),
Jim Horton and Bob Dorer.

Scriba (corresponding to Secretary),
Pat Schoonmaker.

Aediles (corresponding to Social Chairmen),
Roberta Swinton, Art Siegel, Dave O'Malley.

Miss Evelyn Harris is sponsor of the club.

Senior members of the club are: Joan Hoffman, Anne Barkman, Bob Dorer, and Dave Van Sickle.

French Club

With the election of the following officers:

President	Anne Barkman
Vice-President	Shirley Colby
Secretary	Jean Pound
Treasurer	Kathleen Kelly
Social Chairman	Elaine Champansky
Program Chairman	Anne Lefferts

a busy year both educationally and socially was inaugurated for the French Club.

The DUSO League pigskin champions for 1947 were their guests of honor at a dance held early in the fall.

February 12 and 13, twenty members journeyed to New York City and made their headquarters at the Hotel Bristol. They attended the theatre, two broadcasts at Radio City and a French movie and spent one entire day at U. N. headquarters at Lake Success.

The Club is grateful to Mrs. Blood for her patient cooperation.

Seniors in this Club are: Inge Farniok, Margaret Boyle, Anne Barkman, Jean Pound, Kathleen Kelly, Elaine Champansky, Anna Masanotti, Jane Pendell, and Bill Gunning.

Varsity Club

In the year 1946-1947 the Varsity Club, with the aid of an adult advisory committee, raised $1700 to establish the Goodfellow Memorial Scholarship Fund. From this fund the sum of $250 is awarded each year to the outstanding senior boy athlete entered in college for the following year. The first of these awards was made to William Engelhart of the Class of 1947.

In addition to the scholarship, a trophy is also presented each year to the best all-round athlete of any class.

To perpetuate these funds the members of the club worked hard during the past year, operating with great success a concession at all home football and basketball games.

The officers:

President	Charles Westfall
Vice-President	Dominic Marando
Secretary	David Van Sickle
Treasurer	Raymond Nicolette
Advisor	Louis C. Horsman

Seniors in this club are: Charles Westfall, Dave Van Sickle, Jack Conroy, Bob Furman, Earl Grathwohl, Vince Lore, Joe Fizgibbons, William Hoppey, Mike Kowal, John Berthiaume.

Boy's Gym Club

Though organized only this year, and composed mainly of Jr. High students, the Gym Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Foster, has already shown much enthusiasm.

This group meets in the Gym, where the art of gymnastics is taught by its capable sponsor. The club has spent its meetings preparing for the annual Gym exhibition in the Spring. The elected officers are:

President	Ray Nicholette
Vice President	Dominick Marando
Secretary and Treasurer	Carl Parker

The only member of the Gym Club graduating this year is Earl Grathwohl.

Girls' Athletic Association

Organized in 1944, the girls' Athletic Association is a club which sponsors girls' Athletic events, including intramurals in softball, volleyball, badminton, and basketball. It also teaches individual sports, such as tennis and archery.

The main purpose of this organization is to promote sportsmanship among the girls and interest in sports and health. To accomplish their purpose during the school year, the club sponsored extra curricular activities and movies.

During the year the girls had a spring picnic, a Christmas Party, and a basketball game between the women faculty and G.A.A. members which was the most popular affair of the year.

Officers:

President	Marie Aber
Vice President	Jean Galloway
Secretary-Treasurer	Ruth Hubbard
Advisor	Miss Lorraine Hubbard

Senior Cheerleaders

Let's have a "Ready Hep Hep"—shouted the red and blacks during our basketball and football games.

This year the Port Jervis High School really had quite a squad, consisting of eleven members, with Elaine Champansky as captain and Marie Goodfellow as co-captain.

The cheerleaders worked hard to raise money for their new basketball cheering uniforms. In addition to sponsoring dances after the football games, the cheerleaders sponsored basketball games between the Varsity and other teams. Then, too, a most successful dance was held in May.

The cheerleaders obtained buses for all the games in which our high school participated. Before the Middletown-Port Thanksgiving game they led a big pep rally.

The student body have really cooperated with these girls and have done the best cheering they have ever done.

The senior cheerleaders are: Jean Pound, Marie Goodfellow, Elaine Champansky, and Marge Davis.

Junior Cheerleaders

Led by their captain, Nancy Archer, The Junior Cheerleaders had a very full year in '48.

They started the year out by buying new uniforms. At Junior Varsity football and basketball games, the crowds were led in cheering by these energetic youngsters. In November, they presented a "pep assembly" to add to their list of achievements.

All in all, they had a pretty busy time and are looking forward to the day when they will become Senior Cheerleaders.

Band

Under the capable supervision of their director, Mr. Wilson, the band has done fine work this year. Playing for most of our football games and assembly programs, they have proven their ability as a musical group.

Preparation for the annual Orange county musical festival was one of the main tasks of the organization. As usual, they ranked well among the schools of the county. Joining with the other musical organizations of the school, the band took part in the spring concert.

Members of the senior class playing in the band are: Joan Hoffman, Harvey Cohen, Bob Dorer, Jim Cleary and Glen Runnals.

The officers are:

President	Bob Dorer
Vice President	Jim Cleary
Social Chairman	June Price
Secretary and Treasurer	Ray Nicolette
Student Director and Librarian ...	Dominick Marando

A - cappella Choir

Although the A - cappella Choir was started only two years ago, under the direction of Mr. Wilson, it has become one of the most popular clubs in school. Much praise has been given by both pupils and the people of Port Jervis to this club for the excellent programs Mr. Wilson has presented.

This year has been very busy for the choir, as they have presented many programs. At Christmas time, they presented the Christmas story set to music.

Mr. Wilson and the director of the Middletown choir have been planning a concert with combined choirs from both schools. Later on they will meet with other musical organizations of Orange County at Goshen for a Spring Festival. In May they will present a concert in the auditorium for the enjoyment of the whole school.

The following seniors are in the choir; Marjorie Davis, Norma Mosher, Jean Pound, Elaine Champansky, Vince Lore, Jack Conroy, James Cleary, Dave Van Sickle, Jeanne Burns, Joe Fitzgibbons, Marie Goodfellow, Anne Barkman and Bud Westfall.

The officers are:

President	Dave Van Sickle
Vice President	Jim Cleary
Secretary	Jane Horsman
Treasurer	Marjorie Davis

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club has finally increased in number! Under the capable direction of Mr. Wilson, the club has proved to be one of the best in recent years. Singing in standard four part male harmony, the club has sung at assemblies, the Orange County Music Festival and the Spring Concert. Not only has this club entertained for school but also for outside organizations.

Active interest shown by the club's members has made it the club it is.

Seniors who are members are: Jack Conroy, Vince Lore, Joe Fitzgibbons, Jim Cleary, John Berthiaume, Tom Fleming, Bud Westfall, Bill Gunning, and Dave Van Sickle.

The Officers are:

President	Chuck Salmon
Vice President	Alvah Smith
Secretary and Treasurer	Jack Conroy
Social Chairman	Bill Hawkins

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club with a membership of 30 was just as large as in the past.

The harmony of the Glee Club consists of three parts: soprano, second soprano, and alto. On several occasions the Girls' Glee Club and the Boys' Glee club made an appearance together as a four piece chorus.

The following officers were chosen to lead this group throughout the school year:

President	Jean Grady
Vice-President	Betty Guinn
Secretary and Treasurer	Jean Galloway
Librarians	Dolores Dipipi and Daisy Reiser
Director	Mr. George Wilson

Pins were given to the members of the club for their excellent work.

The Club's most important event was the spring concert. Then, too, the members made a trip to Middletown to the annual festival in which all schools in Orange County participated. This affair was the climax of an interesting and enjoyable year.

Seniors belonging to this Club are Jean Grady, Doris Runnalls, and Norma Mosher.

Junior Red Cross

In October the Junior Red Cross, a benevolent organization which claims millions of members, elected the following officers to represent our school for 1947-48:

President	Jeanne Fahey
Vice President	Shirley Wright
Secretary	Inge Farniok
Treasurer	Frank Antonelli
Social Chairman	Patsy McCarthy
Advisor	Miss Hope Chervin

Their first successful project for the school year was the enrolment of all the students of our school in the Annual National Membership Drive. Each representative worked diligently to enroll his class members in the 100 per-cent bracket.

Supplying clothes for the Children's Federation was another of their accomplishments. Each year a collection of used clothing is made for those who are less fortunate than we. The first semester of the school year was completed with another drive for food, which was to be distributed to fourteen needy families in our community, in Christmas baskets.

Early in March each home room received a box which the students filled with school and health supplies. Three dozen of these gift boxes were shipped by Easter to the school children of Europe.

In the spring patterns of animals were made from which they planned to construct stuffed toys for thirty-six European children:

The seniors in this organization are:

Jeanne Fahey
Shirley Wright
Inge Farniok
Joyce Norris

Shorthand Club

The Shorthand Club this year has been very active. Their main project to raise money has been the sale of candy. The money was used to obtain films which helped the secretarial group by providing information on the perfect secretary.

The members also made a state survey on Shorthand Clubs to see what kind of activities they are carrying on.

The officers are:

President	Shirley Wright
Vice President	Evelyn Zitone
Secretary	Joyce Prothero
Treasurer	Barbara Cooper
Sponsor	Miss Richards

The Safety Patrol

Don't Push! Keep to the Right! This seemed to be their Motto.

Before each period we found these girls at their stations in the halls keeping traffic orderly, so that we would have no unnecessary accidents.

The senior girls who have served the squad this year under the direction of Mr. Shaw are, Kathy Kelly, Elaine Shampansky, Mary Jashembowski, Marie Goodfellow, Jean Pound, Norma Mosher, Joan Hoffman, Jean Grady, Doris Runnals, Emily Westfall, and Jane Pendell.

Dramatic Club

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Sinclair, the Dramatic Club began its activities with a membership of eighteen girls.

At the first meeting a committee was appointed to choose a play in which all members would have a chance to show their talent. It was also decided to study the technique of applying make-up.

In May, the club sponsored a one act play for an assembly program.

The members enjoyed working under Miss Sinclair and are looking forward to next year's meetings.

This year, the officers were:

President	Marie Goodfellow
Vice President	Anna Ellison
Secretary	Elaine Champansky
Director	Miss Margaret Sinclair

The Seniors leaving the club are: Jean Pound, Marie Goodfellow, Mary Jashembowski, Elaine Champansky, Jean Grady, Jeanne Burns, Sally Grinder, Pat Rohner, Ann Barkman, and Norma Mosher.

Debate Club

The Debating Club, formed under the supervision of Mr. Huntley, is a great success. Mr. Huntley, himself an accomplished debater, has revived in this school real interest in a club of this kind.

The club was founded in order to train the individual student in the field of public speaking and in logical reasoning. This is its first and perhaps greatest aim. In time the club hopes to gain enough recognition so that the members will be eligible for high school letters, just as the Football, Track, Baseball, and Basketball players are. The next aim of this organization is to enter contests with other schools with the hope of winning state and county championships.

To direct this Club during the school year, a capable and hardworking cabinet of officers were selected. They are as follows:

Chairman	George Sauer
Vice-Chairman	Jim McAndrew
Secretary	Gloria Emrich
Treasurer	Harvey Cohen

The Debating Club's goal is to become an organization of which the school will be proud and in which the students will want to participate.

Seniors belonging to this club are John MacAlarney, Gloria Emrich, Harvey Cohen, Jim McAndrew, Jane Gibbons and Mary Myers.

Camera Club

Under Mr. Carpenter's capable direction, the newly organized Camera Club has participated in many school affairs. The main project about which the club is concerned is the building of a dark room. Funds for the purchase of materials to be used by the club have been raised by sponsoring a dance, The Box Social, which was a success. Their aim is that each member know and understand exactly how to operate various types of cameras. With their officers,

President	Jim Cleary
Vice President	Edmund Land
Secretary	Don Burns
Treasurer	Bob Dorer

leading them, the club has been one of the most active in the school. The class of '48 wishes you luck in future years.

Members of the Camera Club graduating this year are: Jim Cleary, Harvey Cohen, Tom Fleming, Don Burns, and Bob Dorer.

Art Club

The Art Club, now in its second year, is growing and progressing rapidly. The members under the Sponsorship of Mr. Pilkington find themselves called upon to make back drops and posters and to help with the many activities of the school. In spite of the fact that they are busy with their own club, they are always willing workers on any other project for the school.

They are responsible for the beautiful backdrop for the Christmas Assembly. They also planned a stunt night featuring participation by all school clubs.

This club with its sponsors, officers, and members marches on!

The officers are:

President	Jeanne Kahn
Vice President	Peggy Kahn
Secretary and Treasurer	Jean Pound
Social Chairman	Betty Teller

Senior members of the club are: Jean Grady, Bill O'Grodnick, Harvey Cohen, Jeanne Kahn, Sally Grinder, Jean Pound, and Anne Barkman.

Thanks, Mr. Pilkington, for a happy, interesting year!

Future Homemakers of America

The Homemaking Club started off this year by joining the F. H. A.—Future Homemakers of America. This is a national and state organization to which homemaking clubs may belong.

The colors of our organization are red and white, our flower is the red rose, and our motto is "TOWARD NEW HORIZONS."

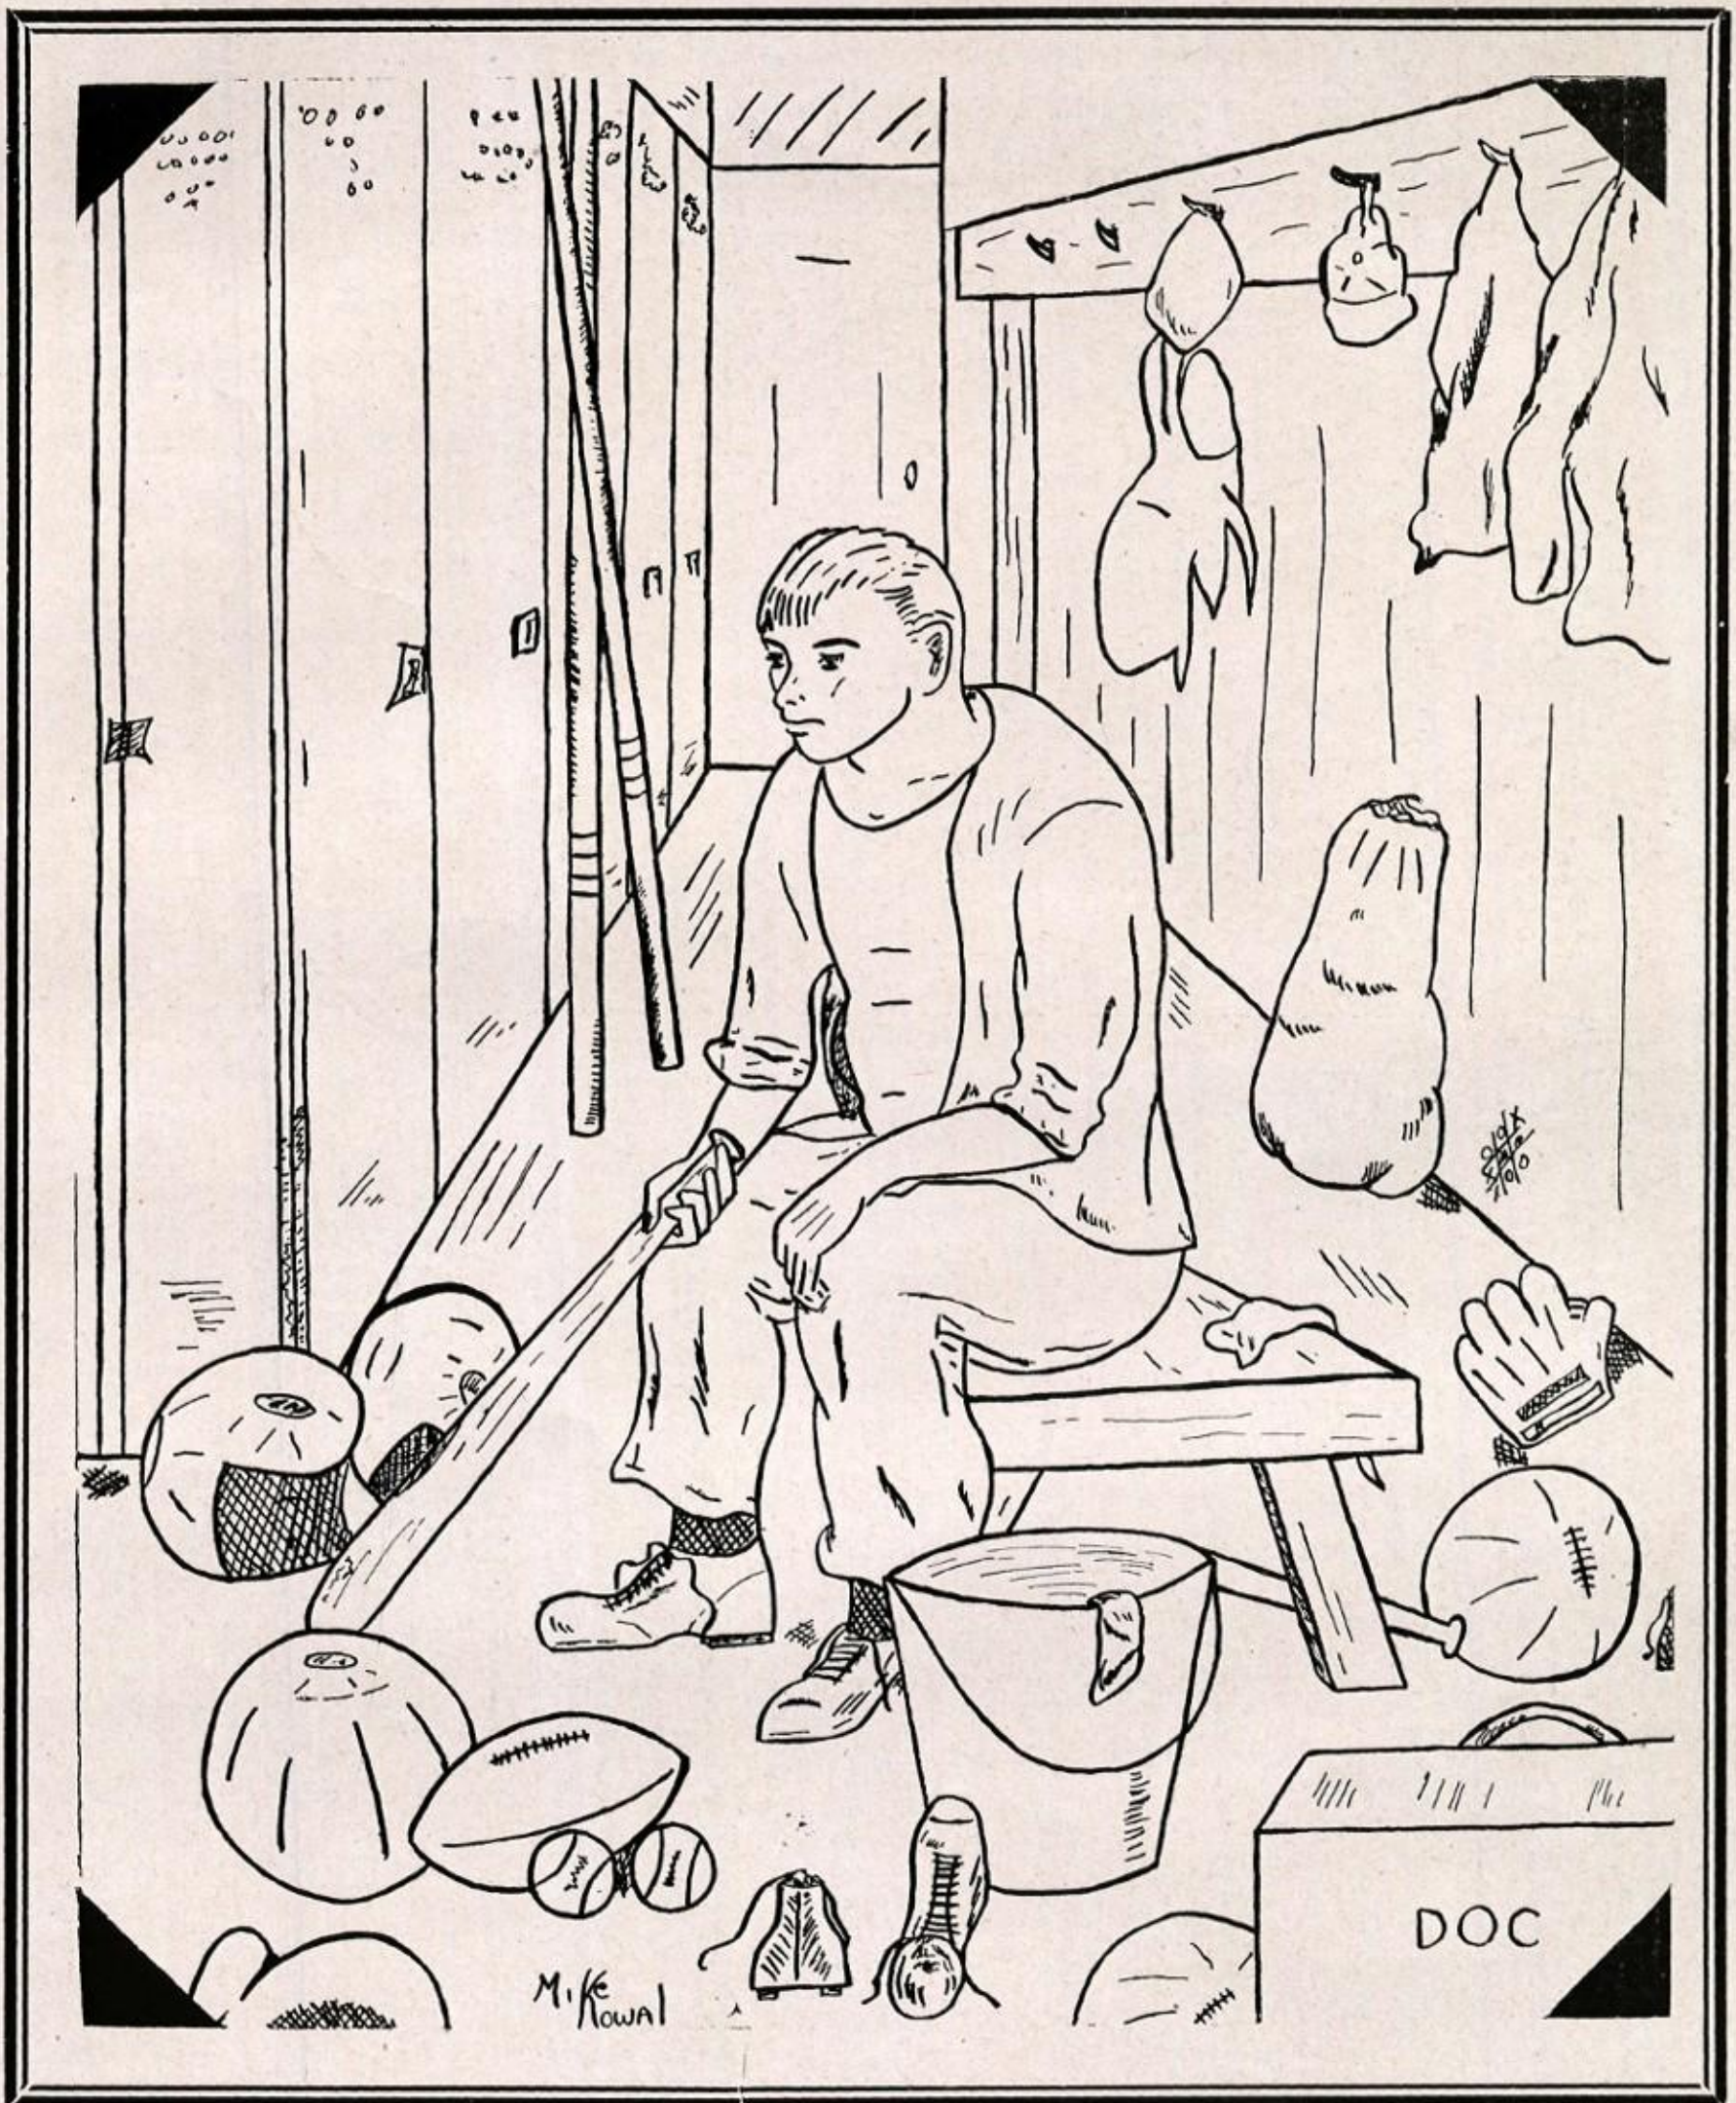

A very impressive candle light service was held for installation of our officers for the year.

At Thanksgiving the club made boxes for the Home for the Aged and one for a needy family.

President	Joan Horst
Vice-President	Mary Casterlin
Secretary	Dorothea Schock
Treasurer	Margaret McDermott
Program Chairman	Mary Meyers
Social Chairman	Diane Corwin
Advisor	Miss Stadel

The 1948 Seniors in our club are: Joan Horst, Mary Casterlin, Sally Moran, Joanne Clark, Mary Meyers, Gloria Emrich, Rose Marie Muller, Betty Roberts, Betty Hanstine, Joyce Norris, and Thelma Scott.

Junior Varsity Basketball

This year Coach Louis Horsman did a fine job of coaching a future varsity team. The J. V's, composed entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores, won 12 out of 14 games—and some of them were really "beauts".

Our J. V. team tied with Kingston for the first place honors in the Junior League. This was due to the great team work of all the players. Some of the outstanding future Varsity men were Jay Bauer, Dave Horsman, Phil Chase, Ed Polanis and Frank Conroy.

By the looks of this year's J. V. team, we can foresee a good year ahead, 1949, for both of our basketball teams. Good luck fellas!!!

Baseball

On April 7, Coach Louis Horsman called his baseball candidates together to make preparations for the '48 season. Last year's lettermen who reported were Jack Conroy, Frank Conroy, Ray Nicolette, Dom Marando, Mike Kowal, Chuck Salmon, Dave Horsman, Tom Hoppey, and Phil Chase.

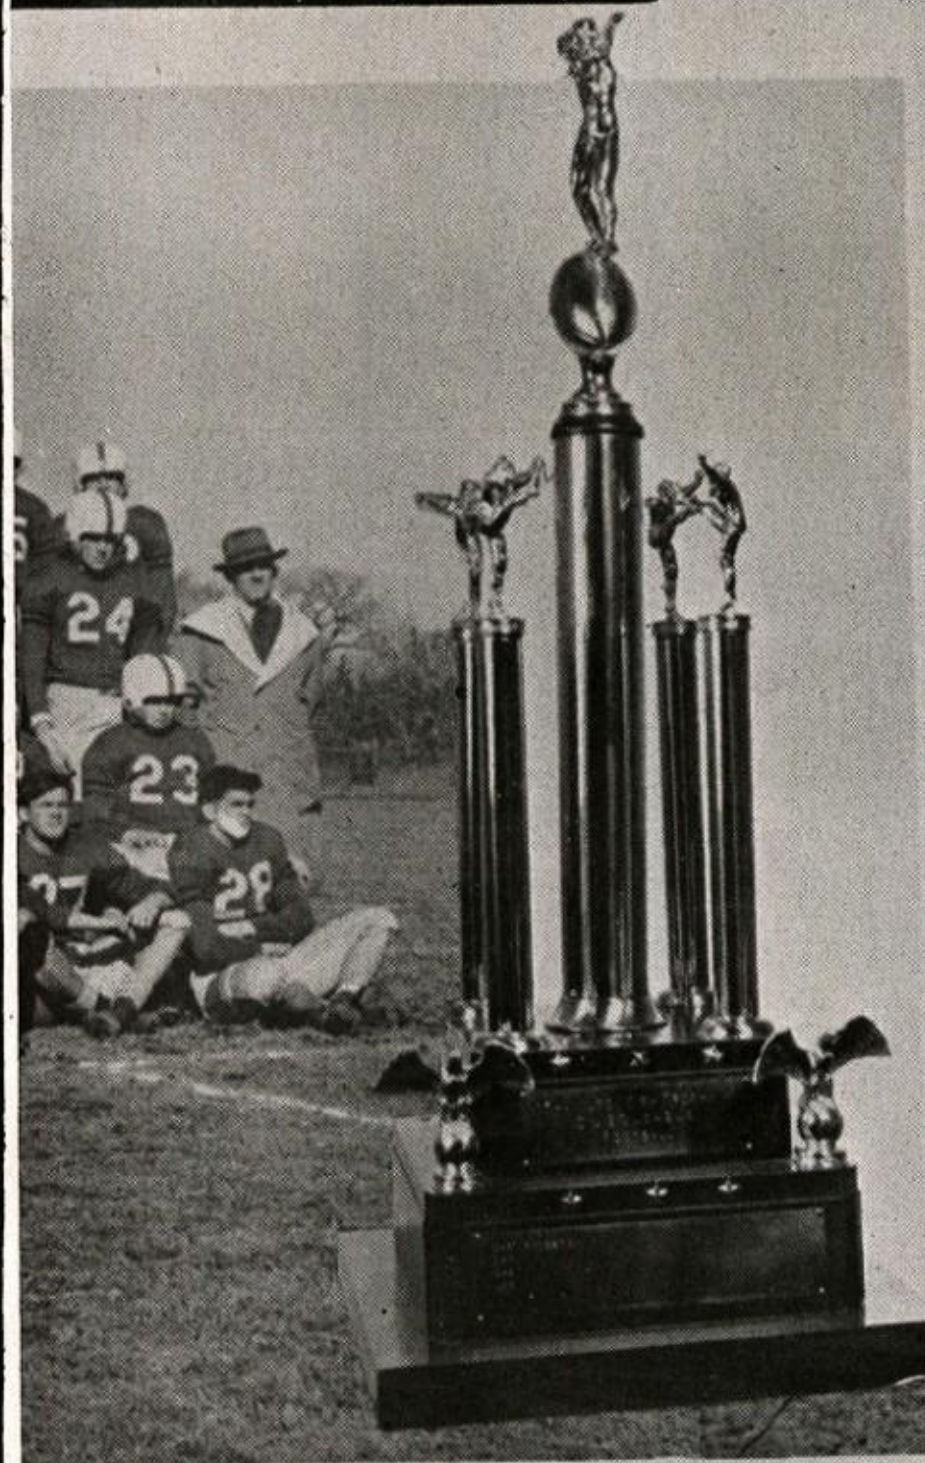

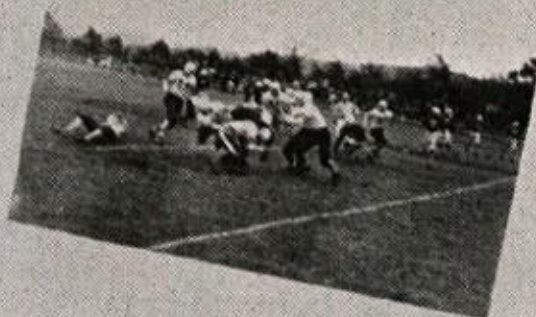

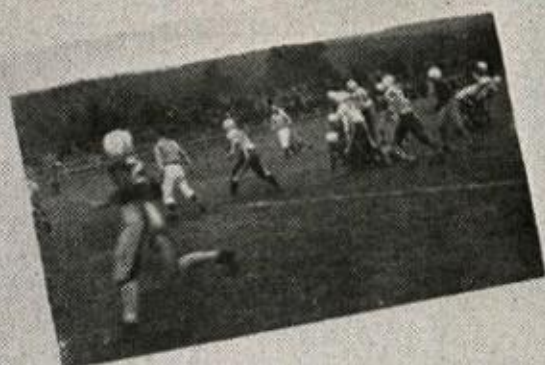

At the time of this writing it is too early in the season to tell just who will fill the positions. We are sure that Jack Conroy will pitch with Dave Horsman behind the plate. Mike Kowal looks good at third with Chuck Salmon and Dom Marando shaping up in the outfield.

The games scheduled for this season are two games with Kingston, Middletown, Newburgh, all of which are Duso games. Non-Duso games that will be played are Fallsburg, Goshen, Warwick and Otisville.

Baseball

On April 7, Coach Louis Horsman called his baseball candidates together to make preparations for the '48 season. Last year's lettermen who reported were Jack Conroy, Frank Conroy, Ray Nicolette, Dom Marando, Mike Kowal, Chuck Salmon, Dave Horsman, Tom Hoppey, and Phil Chase.

At the time of this writing it is too early in the season to tell just who will fill the positions. We are sure that Jack Conroy will pitch with Dave Horsman behind the plate. Mike Kowal looks good at third with Chuck Salmon and Dom Marando shaping up in the outfield.

The games scheduled for this season are two games with Kingston, Middletown, Newburgh, all of which are Duso games. Non-Duso games that will be played are Fallsburg, Goshen, Warwick and Otisville.

Track

This year's track team shows much enthusiasm. Shortly after the Easter vacation Coach Ray Foster called a meeting of all candidates to make preparations for the '48 season.

At the present the only meets are Middletown, Liberty, and Warwick at Home; Orange County, Duso, and Section 9 away.

The returning cinder and field men are Vince Lore, Joe Fitzgibbons, Alvah Smith, Don Burns, and Dave Van Sickle in the track events; Dick Weigel, Tom Fleming, John Gibbons, and Earl Grathwohl in the field events.

CLASSES

Post Graduate Class

The smallest class in school, the Post Graduates, are ten in number. These ten students have returned to school to take subjects which will enable some of them to do better in their jobs and others to prepare themselves for college.

Although they are small in number they make up for it in ambition and school spirit, being active in sports and other extra curricular activities.

Junior Class

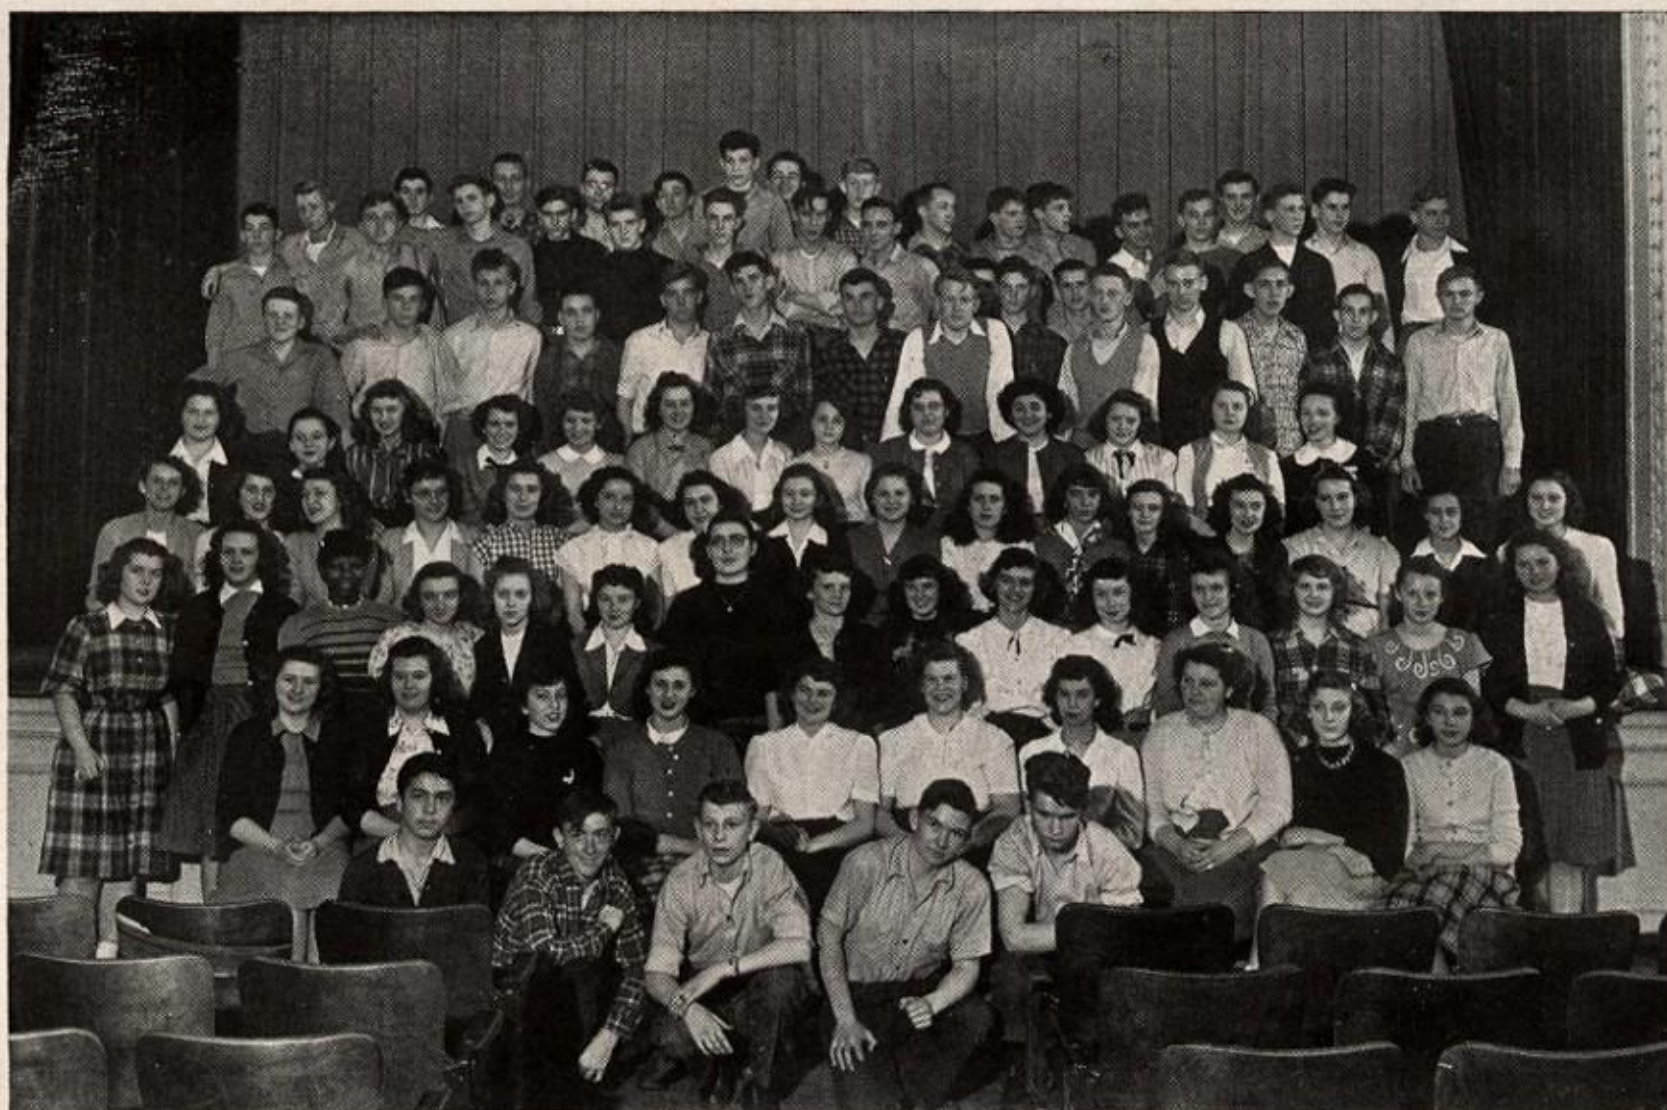

At the beginning of the school year, the Junior Class elected the following officers:

President	Richard Freytag
Vice President	James Horton
Secretary	Roberta Swinton
Treasurer	Edward Markiewicz
Social Chairman	Shirley Colby

The Junior Class got off to a good start this year by sponsoring the Junior Parents' Tea in November. This event was followed by the Junior-Senior party on November 21, 1947.

In March, the Junior play "That Crazy Smith Family" was presented with great success.

Sophomore Class

On November 24, the Sophomore Class sponsored a Parent Teacher Tea, which was a great success.

In March, they sponsored a dance to raise money for their class treasury.

The Sophomore Class elected the following officers at the beginning of the school year:

President	Roger Van Sickle
Vice President	David O'Malley
Secretary	Jean Boyer
Treasurer	Betty Jane Gray
Social Chairman	Arthur Siegel
Advisor	Miss Richards

Freshman Class

The Freshmen Class has had great success in all of its activities this year.

They started off by presenting the "Up in Central Park Frolic". In the spring they held their parent's tea. Both were very enjoyable and profitable affairs.

The capable officers this year were:

President	Russell Salmon
Vice President	Jack Fleming
Secretary	Cynthia March
Sponsor	Miss Harris

Eighth Grade

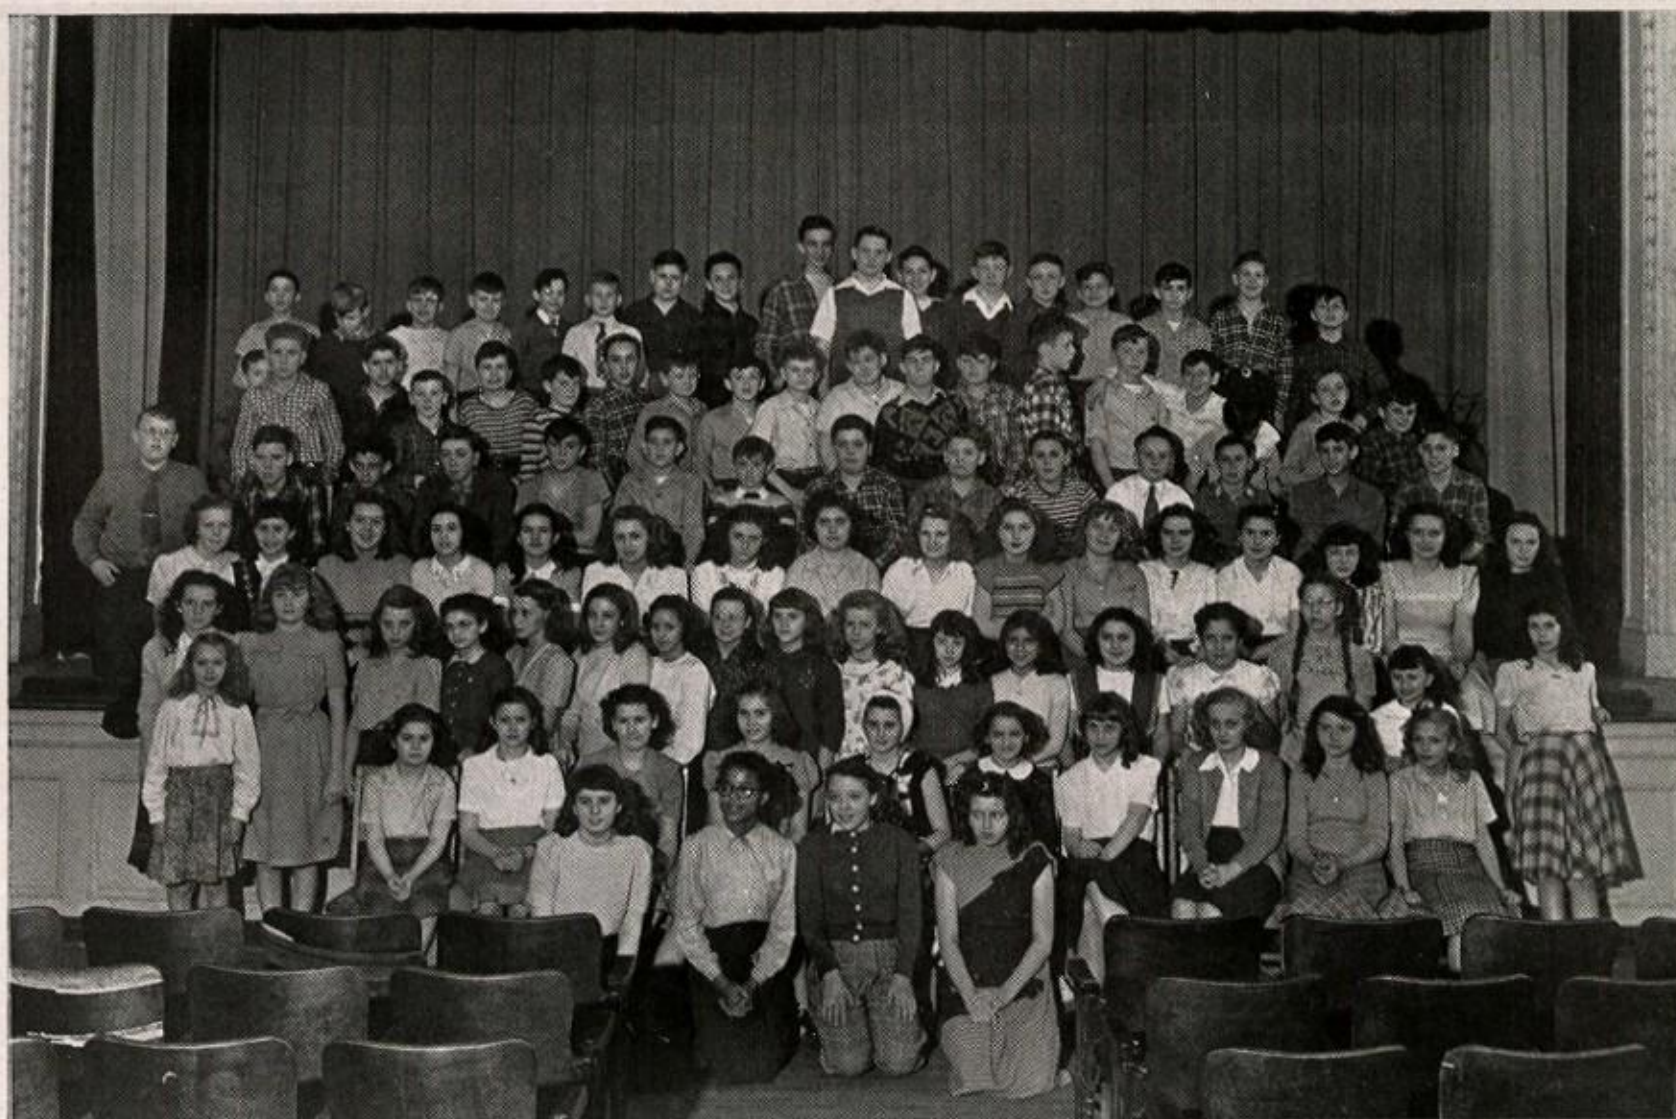

For officers for the 1947-1948 term, the eighth grade elected the following:

President	Richard Shewchuk
Vice President	Leo Hoppey
Secretary	Robert Long
Treasurer	Gene Clark

The Eighth grade presented a mystery play and game night for their parents on November 12, 1947.

Their main activity this year was selling pencils. They were very successful in this project.

Seventh Grade

The Seventh graders are a lively, energetic group, about whom you will hear more in the next few years.

Their chief project this year was the sale of pencils to start their treasury.

The class officers are:

President	John Barbarino
Vice President	Charles Burns
Secretary	Joan Curran
Treasurer	Raymond Martin
Sponsor	Mrs. Carlton

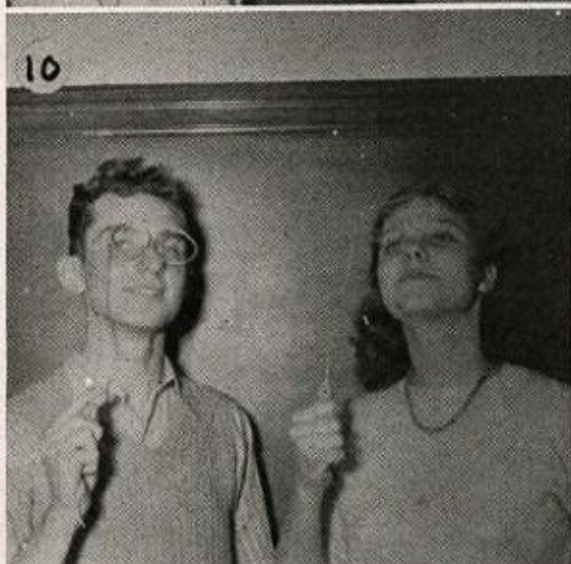

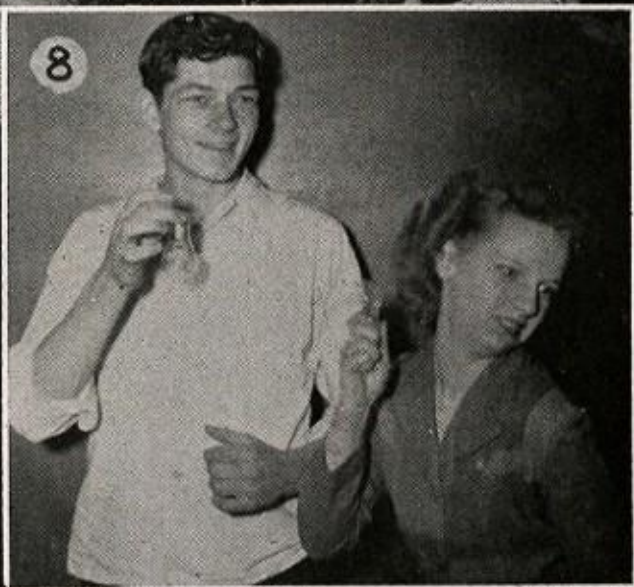

I'm all ready now, Elsworth

A Wedding In January 1960

As I was getting my two little ones ready to play in the snow one frosty day in January, I heard the postman's familiar whistle. Jim Cleary handed me some letters, most of which were for my husband. But seeing one addressed to Mr. and Mrs., I hastily opened it. Inside was an engraved card reading:

*Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Gordon request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter
Michel Anne
to
Mr. Edward Jay Mitchell
on Friday, the fifth of February
Nineteen Hundred and Sixty at two o'clock
Eighteen James Street*

That afternoon I made arrangements to leave my two offspring at the Baby Sitting Agency run by Mary Casterlin and Sally Moran. Thus I was able to shop for a suitable wedding gift.

First I went into the Tom and Tom Department Store, which is run by Tom Boland and Tom Fleming and managed by John MacAlarney. I stopped to chat with Doris Runnalls, who was in charge of the dress department. She told me Pat Bauer, Anna Masanotti, and Jerome Kelly were back in town after their campaign tour. They're supporting Anne Barkman for President this year. I said I thought Inge Farniok was flying home from the elocution convention in Europe to attend the wedding, followed of course by her faithful heckler, John Berthiaume. As I was leaving the store I waved to Mary Jane Stempert and Thelma Scott, who are also employed there.

I trudged down the street, passing Mary Meyers' and Margaret Boyle's Yarn Shop, and stopped at the corner news stand to get the town paper, which is edited by Harvey Cohen and owned by Jim McAndrew. I glanced at the personals—Kathleen Kelly has been appointed Supervisor of the Thomas Memorial Hospital founded by Jane Pendell—the former Catherine Pinkala and Emily Westfall accompanied by their husbands are visiting their parents of this city—Mary Jashembowski and Marie Goodfellow announce the opening of a Tea Shoppe—Jim Pagano has been voted the most popular band leader of 1960—Bob Lemon and Charlie Croopin have won the Annual State Motorcycling Races—Jack Conroy's and Jack McKinnon's latest machine for the removal of snow from the railroad tracks has won the city science award—and Don Burns is spending his furlough from the Navy at home.

Tucking the paper under my arm I entered Jeanne Anne Kahn's Art Studio. Anna Mae Bodensieck her assistant, said she was out for lunch. As I was leaving I met Jane Gibbons, who is the buyer for Betty Robert's Dress Shop. While we talked for a few minutes I learned that Gloria Emrich and Glenn Runnalls are doing very well in the dairy business they opened several years ago. Jane also mentioned that Bud Westfall and Earl Grathwohl are now playing professional football.

Since I was already downtown I stopped in Ken Cuddeback's Grocery Store to buy something for the evening meal. Angelo Calvaro got my purchases together and I paid Floyd Keener, the clerk, on my way out.

My last stop was the Swingle Brothers' Emporium. There Joyce Norris waited on me, and I purchased some glassware for a gift.

After picking up the youngsters I bought gas at the corner garage run by Dick Case and Vic Nostrand. When I reached home I discovered I had forgotten the bread, so I sent my oldest down to Marion Suderley's bakery for a loaf.

Thus I was all ready for the wedding and also for the evening meal.

The following evening we attended a shower in honor of the bride-to-be, given by Shirley Wright, Jean Fahey and Evelyn Zitone. Catherine Livingston, Helen Ewanciew, Frank Scales, and Jim Mineau were all there to greet us when we arrived. Jim Roach and Bob Reiser were held up by work in their machine shop.

Friday the wedding was held. We arrived at the church early that day, for I wanted to chat with some of my old classmates before the ceremony. In the lobby I stopped to talk to Joanne Clark and to Mike Kowal, our class president. Entering the church, I paused to introduce Betty Hanstine, Willard Kent, and Dan Sheare to my husband. Bill Hoppey, one of the ushers, showed us to our seats. I winked at Jean Burns and Buck Smith, who were just sliding into their seats as the wedding march began. Bob Furman and the other ushers were the first in procession, followed by Pat Rohner, Lois Mai, Sally Grinder, and Lucy Van Sickle, the bridesmaids. Next came the maid of honor, Jean Grady, and lastly the bride and her father. At the proper time, Joe Fitzgibbons, the best man, handed the groom the ring, which he promptly placed on the bride's finger and the nuptial, conducted by Robert F. Dorer and Dave Van Sickle, was over with the playing of the recessional by the organist, Norma Mosher. During the ceremony Jean Pound and Marjorie Davis sang several selections.

We climbed into taxis waiting outside the church, and were driven to the reception by Harry Foss, Cliff Stone, and Cliff Space.

At three o'clock we had arrived at Herman Boerner's Hotel. Harold Boyce, the manager, greeted us as we entered, and Joan Hoffman, the hostess, showed us to the Blue Room where the dinner was to be served.

We were seated next to Dick McDowell, President of the Pin Boys Union, and Lee Palmer, the modern car designer. Across from us sat Rosemarie Muller, a gym teacher, and Bill Ogrodnick, local piano player. The meal was then served by Betty Moran, Jean Kirschner, and Ann Ryback, the waitresses. After we finished, my husband and I went into the kitchen to congratulate Chef Pettiti for the wonderful meal he had prepared. Then we proceeded to the airport owned by the Haggerty Twins and Charles Hamilton to see the couple off on their honeymoon.

We drove down Green Boulevard, passing Senator Paulison's mansion. As we stopped for a red light Marie Card went by wheeling her youngster in a stroller. Eugene Rombousek, the traffic cop, then waved us on. The last shop we passed was a furriery run by Al Wright and Warren Joergle.

A few miles farther on we drove into the airport right behind the A & P millionaire, William Gunning, the 3rd. Entering the waiting room we saw the rest of our party speaking to Congresswoman Champansky while the groom purchased two tickets from Leo Fleming, the clerk. The stewardess, Joan Horst, announced that the plane was ready, and the passengers, including Merchant Marine Vince Lapriore, filed through the gate to the awaiting plane. Pilot Lore signaled his readiness, and we stood waving as the plane took off and soon was dissolved in a billow of clouds, taking the couple to Bermuda, and I returned once more to be wife, mother, and general cleaner-upper for my family.

Amen.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1948, being of sound mind and body, and possessing excellent memory (?) after four years in the institution of Port Jervis High School, declare this document as our latest will and testament.

1. To our Senior Class Advisors, we express our gratitude and sincere appreciation for the help they have given us during the past year.
2. To the faculty members we express the hope that not too many grey hairs have appeared since we entered P. J. H. S.
3. To the Junior Class we leave our long hoped for front seats in the auditorium.
4. The broken test tubes, the horrible odors and terrifying sounds from the chemistry lab are left in Mr. Padgett's care.
5. To the gobblers who haven't yet lost their heads we leave the thrill of winning the Thanksgiving game.
6. The Janitorial Staff is left all the broken desks, leaky pipes and overflowing waste baskets.
7. All the angles and curves of any shape or description are willed to Mr. Horsman.
8. We, the literate members of the Senior English Class, five in all, bequeath the art of public speaking to the all-suffering Juniors.
9. To the librarian we leave the many torn pages in the books we have read so many times.
10. To next year's Seniors we leave the job of getting ready for, decorating and going to the Senior Prom.
11. The ever-scarcity of men is left to the Junior girls. P. S. Don't forget 1948 is Leap Year!
12. To the underclassmen we leave the privilege of graduating from a school they have attended for six long years.

To whoever will have the misfortune of undertaking this task in the years to come, we extend our wholehearted sympathy.

Witnessed by:

MIGHTY MOUSE
SPARKLE PLENTY
TENNESSEE JED

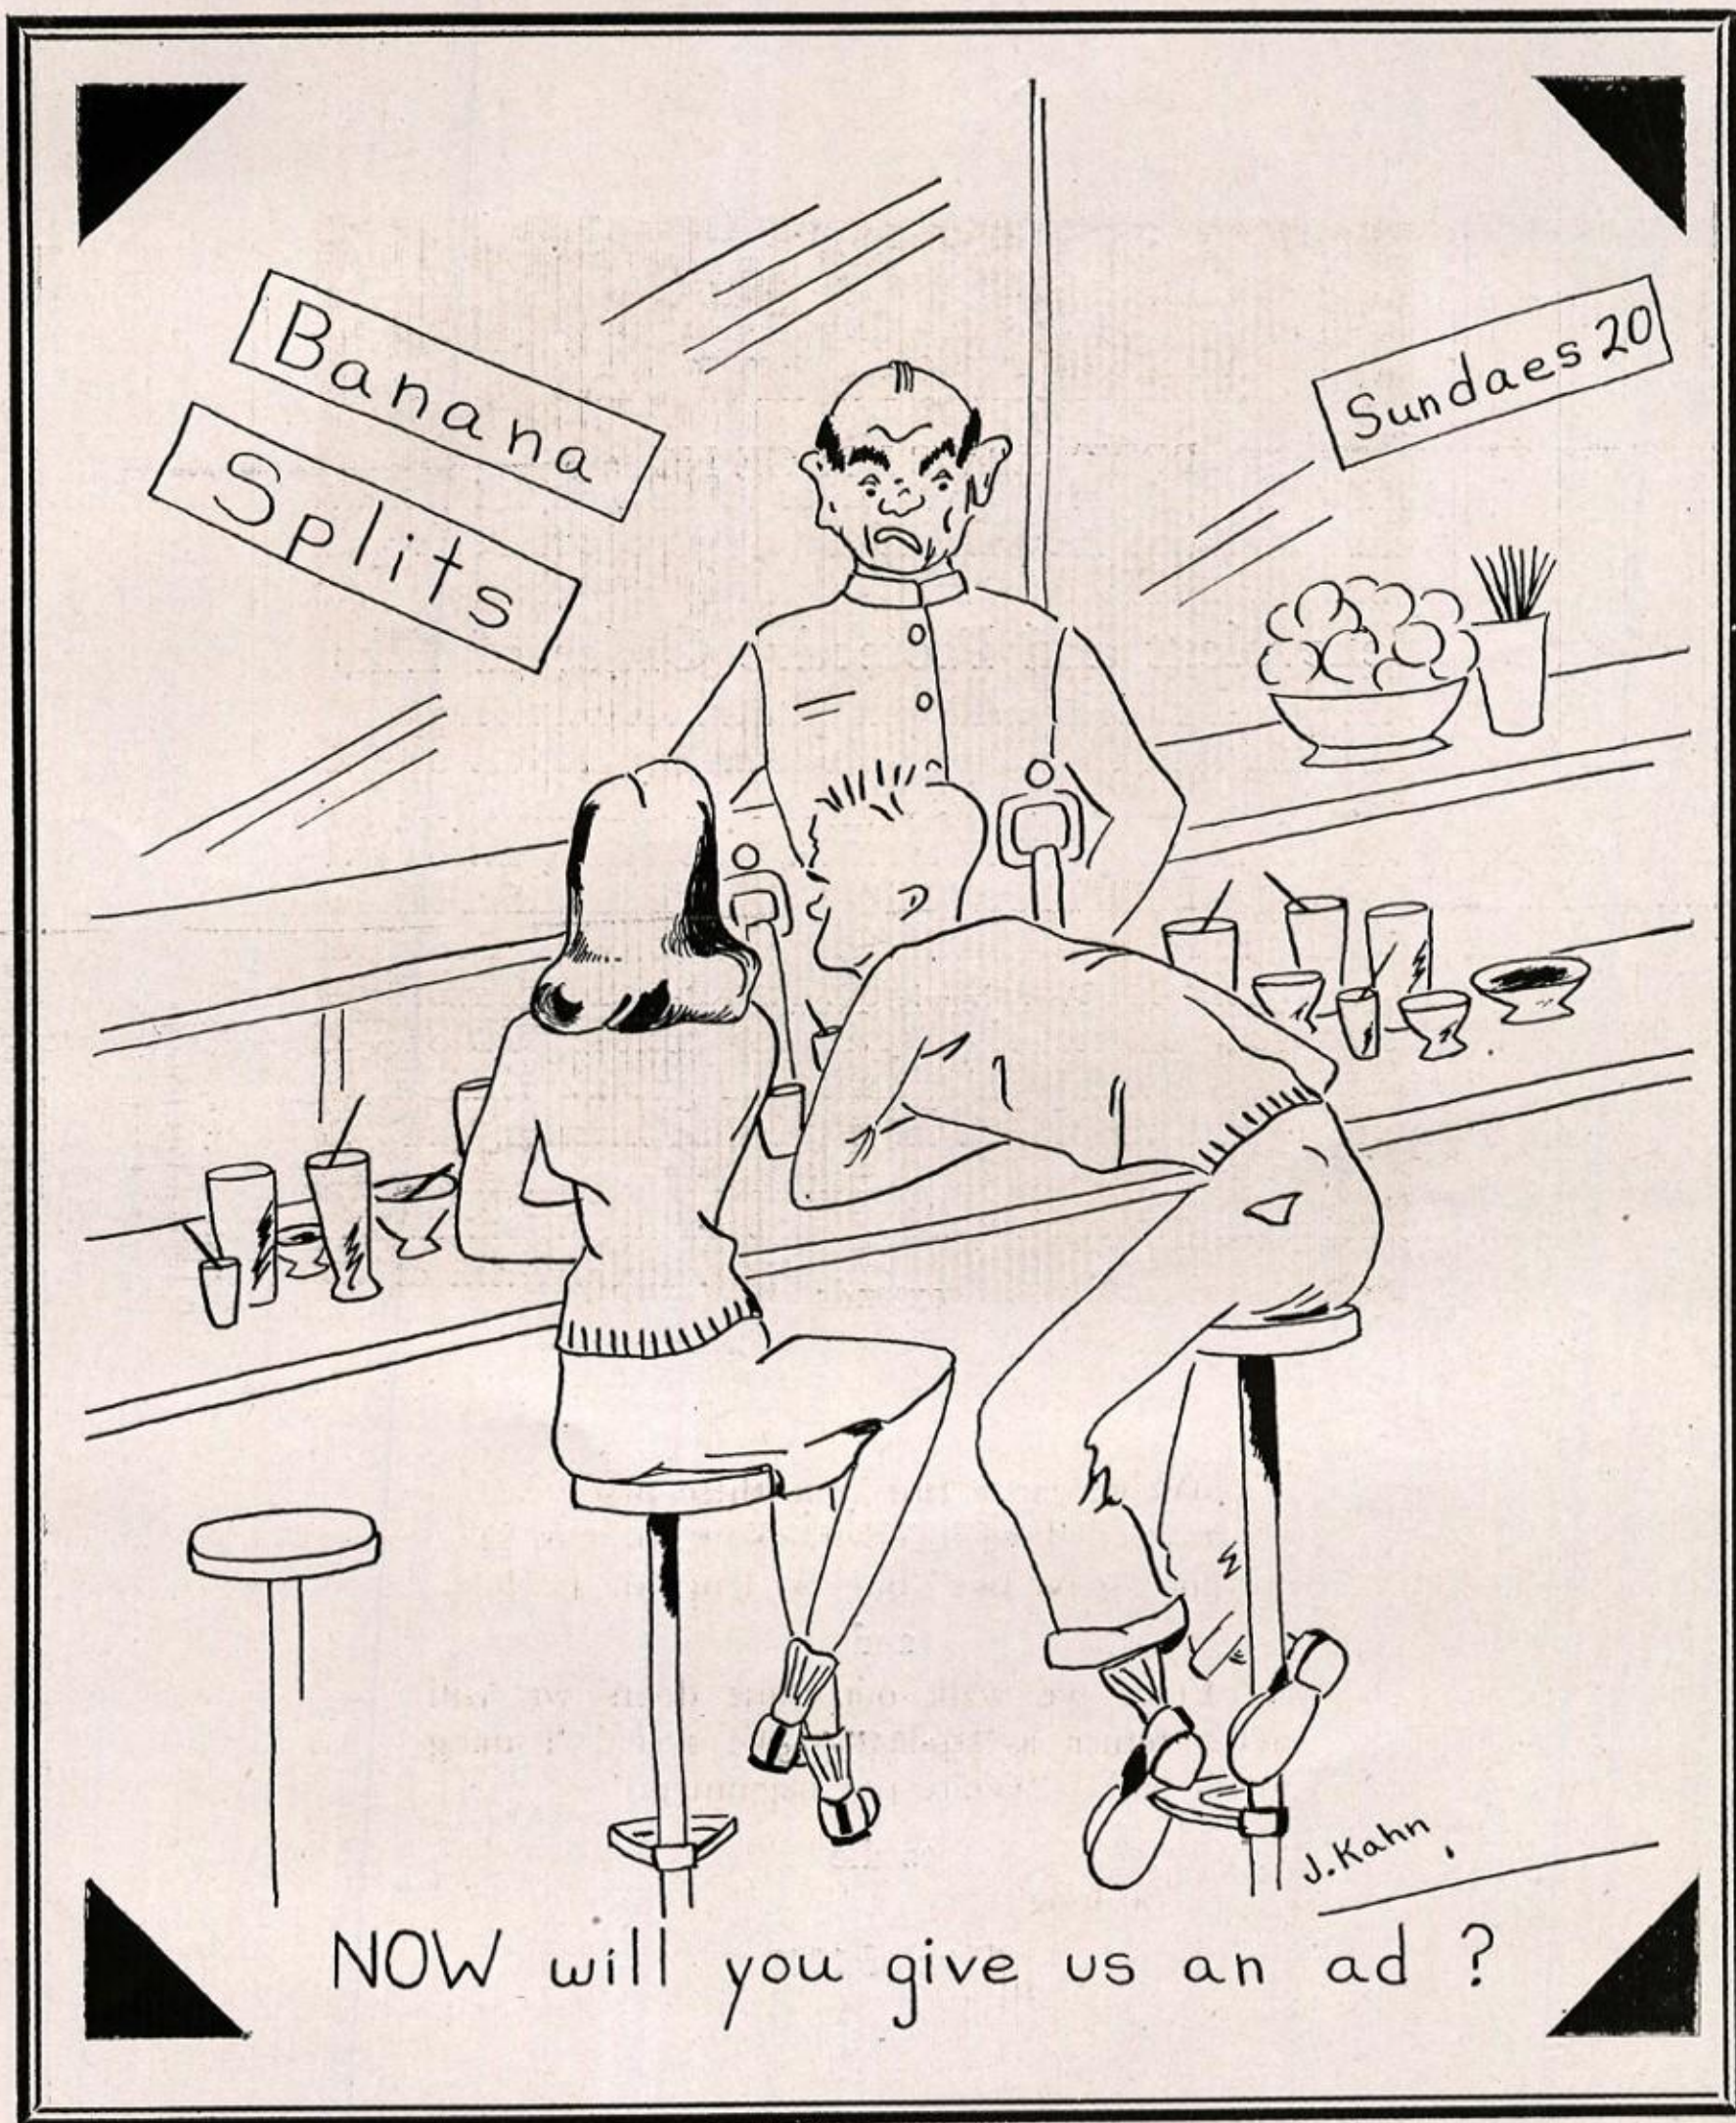

We've had a fine time these past years as we traveled along together. Now we must say—no—not “good bye” but “so long for a while.”

Once we walk out these doors we will never return as students. We aren't “coming to the end.” “We're just beginning.”

So long!

NOW will you give us an ad ?
